

Charles's Story

Sgt. Charles C. Nelson Jr., U.S. Capitol Police

My cause is education for the underprivileged. I grew up in the Washington, D.C., inner city and am a product of DC Public Schools. I was fortunate and blessed enough to have parents who worked and fought for my brother and me to have the best educational opportunities possible. We must all remember at some point, we needed a little help. The CFC allows Federal employees to return the favor some of us were granted.

“My cause is education for the underprivileged. My parents fought for my brother and me to have the best educational opportunities possible. The CFC allows Federal employees to return the favor.”

